

SOLAR POWER PURCHASE AGREEMENT

Customer (Homeowner)		Phone
Imogen Tarrant		+19085550163
Installation Address
9 Chestwood Street, Lakemont, NJ 07874
System Size (kW DC):	9.84	Estimated Year-1 Production: 11,611 kWh
Seller / Owner
HarborLight Solar Finance LLC dba LightHarbor
Certified Installer		License
Sunridge Solar LLC		13VH-0099-4417
PPA Rate ($/kWh)	Escalator	Term (years)
$0.190	2.99%	25

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period.

Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter.

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party.

The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period.

Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form.

Agreement - Section 2

Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form. Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located.

Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form.

The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner. The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner.

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party. Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party. Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form.

The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner. The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term.

The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located.

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form. Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges.

Agreement - Section 3

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter.

The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party. Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter.

The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance. The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights.

The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges. Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter.

Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form. Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party.

The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term. The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term.

The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term. Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party.

Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation. Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

Agreement - Section 4

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period.

The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights. Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period.

Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance. Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges.

The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term. The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter. Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located.

The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner. Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges.

The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located.

Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form. The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner.

Agreement - Section 5

Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party. The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner.

The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance. The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term.

The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation. Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges.

Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance. Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period.

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner.

The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner.

The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located.

The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner. The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term.

Agreement - Section 6

The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located. The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights.

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party. The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner.

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party. The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner.

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located. Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges.

The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges.

Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights.

The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located.

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges.

Agreement - Section 7

The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation. Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges.

The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term. Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period.

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located. Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period.

Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form. The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term.

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter.

The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges. Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party.

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located.

The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located.

The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance. Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter.

Agreement - Section 8

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter.

Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located.

The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located.

Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation. Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located.

Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges. Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter.

Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges. Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form.

Agreement - Section 9

Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter. Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period.

The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges. The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights.

The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party. The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term.

Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges. Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period.

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term.

Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges. The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term.

The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located.

The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form. Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output.

The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation. The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner.

Agreement - Section 10

Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges. The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner.

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party. Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter.

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form. Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter.

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output.

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form. Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges.

The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner. Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form.

The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner. The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner.

The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term. Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period.

The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights. Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

Agreement - Section 11

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights. Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party.

Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter. Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party.

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term.

The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner. The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner.

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located. Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party.

The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights. Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party.

Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter. Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

Agreement - Section 12

The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term. Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter.

Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter. Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period.

Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges. Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output.

Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form. Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output.

Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located. Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges.

The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located. The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner.

Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter. Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges.

Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights. Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party.

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party. The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights.

Agreement - Section 13

Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation. Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights.

Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation. Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges.

The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner. The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges. The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party.

Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output.

Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner. Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output.

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

Agreement - Section 14

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges.

Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges. Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output.

Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located.

Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located. Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form.

The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located.

The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance. Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges.

The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner. The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner.

Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter. Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form.

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form.

Agreement - Section 15

Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located.

The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner. Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period.

Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party. The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term.

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party. Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output.

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner.

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party.

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party. Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges.

The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights. Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter.

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party. The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter. Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party.

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form.

Agreement - Section 16

The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter. The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term.

Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter. Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form.

The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights. Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights.

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period.

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party.

Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges.

Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form. Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter.

Agreement - Section 17

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights. Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation. Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form.

The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges. Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party.

The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term. Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form.

Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form. The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner.

The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party. The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner.

Agreement - Section 18

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights. Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output.

Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation. Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output.

The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights. Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner.

Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges. Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges.

The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party. Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges.

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party. Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party.

The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term. Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period.

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located. The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term.

Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party. Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output.

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

Agreement - Section 19

Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation. Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form.

The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located.

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output.

Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation. Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period.

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party.

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located. Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output.

Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation. Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form.

Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter. Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner.

Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located.

Agreement - Section 20

Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter. Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output.

The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term. Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form.

The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights. Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party.

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner. Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges.

The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights. The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form. Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period.

Agreement - Section 21

The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance. Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period.

The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located.

Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter. The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights.

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located.

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located. Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form.

The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation. The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term.

Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges. Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form.

The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term. The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term.

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner.

The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance. Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner.

The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights. Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

Agreement - Section 22

Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights. Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter.

Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form. Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output.

Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter.

The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges. Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter.

Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges. Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter. Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter.

Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges. The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner.

The Customer shall not alter, relocate or obstruct the System without prior written consent of the Owner. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located.

Agreement - Section 23

The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term. Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party.

Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation. The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term.

Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form. Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term. Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output.

Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period. Either Party may assign this Agreement to a qualified successor upon written notice to the other Party.

Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter. Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges.

Charges are calculated per kilowatt-hour delivered by the System as measured by the production meter. The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance.

The Customer shall provide reasonable access to the Premises for installation, inspection and maintenance. Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period.

The Owner will maintain commercially reasonable insurance covering the System throughout the Term. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall first be addressed through good-faith negotiation.

Production estimates are projections only and are not a guarantee of actual energy output. Taxes, fees and assessments attributable to the System are allocated as set forth in the schedule of charges.

Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form. The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights.

The Parties agree that the System shall remain the property of the Owner for the duration of the Term. Upon expiration of the Term the Customer may renew, purchase the System at fair market value, or request removal.

Notices required under this Agreement shall be delivered in writing to the addresses stated in the Order Form. Force majeure events excuse performance for the duration of the event and a reasonable restoration period.

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State in which the Premises are located. The Customer acknowledges receipt of the disclosure statement and the notice of cancellation rights.

Signature Page - Solar Power Purchase Agreement

By signing below the Parties agree to be bound by this Agreement and its exhibits.

Homeowner

Signature: Imogen Tarrant

Name: Imogen Tarrant

Date: Jun 9, 2026

Owner (LightHarbor)

Signature: Marcus Ellery

Name: Marcus Ellery

Date: Jun 9, 2026

EXHIBIT C: NOTICE OF CANCELLATION

You may cancel this transaction, without any penalty or obligation, within 10 days after signing the contract. If you cancel, any property traded in, any payments made by you under the contract or sale and any negotiable instrument executed by you will be returned within 10 days following receipt by the seller of your cancellation notice.

To cancel, mail or deliver a signed and dated copy of this cancellation notice, or any other written notice, or send an email to help@lightharbor.example not later than midnight of the third business day after you sign the Agreement.

Installation Address: 9 Chestwood Street, Lakemont, NJ 07874

Homeowner:

Signature: _____

Name: Imogen Tarrant _____

Date: _____

Co-Homeowner (if any):

Signature: _____

Name: _____

Date: _____

Certificate Of Completion

Envelope Id: B2C1F7A0-31D4-4E52-9A6B-7D8E1C0F4A22

Status	Completed
Document Pages	50
Signatures	3
Initials	0

Envelope Sent	Jun 9, 2026 10:10
Certified Delivered	Jun 9, 2026 10:10
Signing Complete	Jun 9, 2026 10:10
Completed	Jun 9, 2026 10:10

Certificate Of Completion (continued 1)

Envelope Id: B2C1F7A0-31D4-4E52-9A6B-7D8E1C0F4A22

Status	Completed
Document Pages	50
Signatures	3
Initials	0

Envelope Sent	Jun 9, 2026 10:17
Certified Delivered	Jun 9, 2026 10:17
Signing Complete	Jun 9, 2026 10:17
Completed	Jun 9, 2026 10:17

Certificate Of Completion (continued 2)

Envelope Id: B2C1F7A0-31D4-4E52-9A6B-7D8E1C0F4A22

Status	Completed
Document Pages	50
Signatures	3
Initials	0

Envelope Sent	Jun 9, 2026 10:24
Certified Delivered	Jun 9, 2026 10:24
Signing Complete	Jun 9, 2026 10:24
Completed	Jun 9, 2026 10:24

Certificate Of Completion (continued 3)

Envelope Id: B2C1F7A0-31D4-4E52-9A6B-7D8E1C0F4A22

Status	Completed
Document Pages	50
Signatures	3
Initials	0

Envelope Sent	Jun 9, 2026 10:31
Certified Delivered	Jun 9, 2026 10:31
Signing Complete	Jun 9, 2026 10:31
Completed	Jun 9, 2026 10:31

LightHarbor Signature Authorization

The undersigned is an authorized signatory of the Power Provider for ADI program filings.

Name: Marcus Ellery

Title: Authorized Signatory

Signature: Marcus Ellery

Company Digital Signature Authorization Form

This template is for company officials who choose to authorize their employees to apply their legally binding digital signatures to documents submitted to the ADI Program.

I, Dana Whitcomb [Full Name], Vice President (Title) of authorize the employees of the company to apply digital signatures to program documents.

Sunridge Solar LLC [Formal Company Name], hereby

Dana Whitcomb
